100 Women In Finance

Women in Finance

The 100 Women in Finance LaunchMe Mentorship Program is an empowering development program connecting pre-career women and recent entrants to the workforce with finance professionals across diverse roles in the financial services industry.

Program Highlights

- Six-month program, 2-3 hours/month commitment
- 1:1 mentor-mentee meetings with key focus areas (career, network, skills, business acumen)
- Group meetings with actionable career strategies and relevant industry updates
- Peer networking opportunities, in-person & virtual
- In-person event to network and gain insight from industry experts

Mentorship Impact

- Mentees develop meaningful connections and strategic career skills
- Student mentees feel more prepared for internships and full-time roles
- Recent global LaunchMe Mentors report enhanced leadership and emotional intelligence
- Mentors experienced personal fulfillment in shaping the next generation of talent
- Mentees and mentors attribute mentorship impact as a key contributor to promotion

With your support, we aim to increase participation from Cayman students, early-career professionals (0-3 years), and Cayman professionals as mentors, building a strong pipeline of future female finance leaders. This year, funds raised through the Cayman Gala will be used to support the local LaunchMe program.

> " Mentoring has encouraged me to better understand my own strengths and areas for growth, allowing for my personal development. By discussing challenges, goals, and solutions with my mentee, I also learned to refine my ability to articulate ideas and concerns clearly in my own work environment, improving one-on-one interactions and communication - Mentor 2024 "

> " I owe a special thanks to my incredible mentor. Her wisdom and kindness have left a profound impact on me. She's shared so much more than just industry expertise; she's opened doors to new connections and conversations that have helped me clarify my goals and recognize where my strengths might fit best.
